

Policy For Handling More Than One Dog

ATD does not allow members to handle any two-dog team, including service dogs, unless approved by the Alternative Review Committee and operating under the two-dog rules that are already in place due to concerns for the safety of handling therapy dogs around residents, patients, and medical equipment, as well as for the safety of handlers and their dogs. Please see the current member handbook for all member rules and regulations or contact the office with any questions.